Dear ZM Friends:

It has been an amazing school year that is ending with our final Legacy Club outreach meetings. Imagine a small group of about 40 Christian students who had a dream to reach their school for Jesus Christ. They request the Master's Commission to be the main part of the program. They pray for a large crowd. The meeting is moved to the largest area available. And then the day arrived! Over 475 attended and heard the gospel and many made commitments to the Lord. The student leaders and Adult sponsor were ecstatic and thankful that their fellow students and teachers shared in this special event at their school.

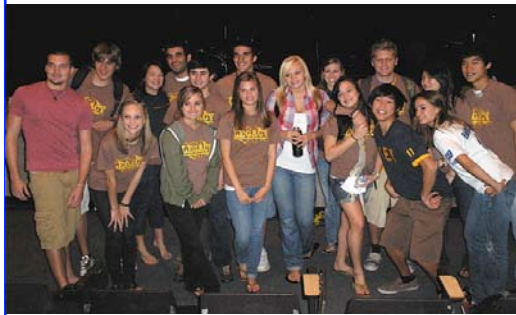

King HS ends its last outreach meeting with over 475 attending a Program featuring The Master's Commission and testimonies.

Students pray at Freedom HS meeting.

Sue sits with Legacy Club students we took to the Acquire the Fire Student Conference at USF Sundome. Over 12,500 students attended this powerful meeting with guest speakers and music groups. The challenge was for purity, establishing a pattern of studying the scriptures, obeying your parents and being witnesses for the Lord.

Student leaders at the Gaither HS Legacy Club line up for their last photo. This group had a great impact on their school with many outreaches. Here is a list of some of their ministry events: They began by praying and studying the scriptures. They gave out 1000 "character bracelets" to students, also gave bracelets and the gospel to 500 Special Olympians, gave donations from every meeting to local ministries, cooked breakfast for school administrators, cleaned the stadium after football games, raised funds for Relay for Life, planned, spoke and sang at 7 outreaches where over 350 students were exposed monthly to the gospel in creative ways. "Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe." 2 Tim. 4:12

Letters of Encouragement:

Z, Thank you so much for sending the Easter Devotions. In the trenches of the public school system, I treasure these words of spirit and truth! Let's plan on you coming after spring break to speak to my 8th period class...these are kids who need prayer. C.O.

Zee, I know that you don't remember me, but I was a student leader in FCA's growing up and worked with you in the 90's. I was greatly influenced by your passion for campus ministry, evangelism, and missions.

I am now a teacher at and a sponsor of our Christian Club on campus. We are currently called "Fellowship of Christian Students" and not affiliated with any group. We have about 200 members on club days and about 40-50 active members at other activities throughout the month.

I found out that you have started these "Legacy Clubs" and I was wondering if you could tell me more about them. What are they all about? What is involved in becoming a "Legacy Club"? Is it possible for our club to join your organization and become a Legacy Club? Thank you for your time DP

Hi Zee

I am noticing a definite trend. I just got off the phone with the single mom of a bright student in my class. He is falling fast...grades are slipping and acts up during my class. Wants to play at the expense of his grade. His mom said an all too common response - Yes, I know what you are saying but I do not know what to do...no male figure. Our local youth pastor Ricky, comes and visits once a week, All mothers contacted are willing and desire a Christian male influence. A total mission field....these lost students respond to one on one. So please come and speak to my class and visit with some of these students. S.M. Update: I recently visited this class and and four others and spent time with some of the young men in these classes.

Zee shares with 200 eight year olds at a SERVE school event where he spoke on fitness, health and exercise and his faith.
